

Data Protection and Data Handling Policy

The protection of personal data is important for FabLab Budapest (and so it is for its owner, Fabrikacios Laboratorium Ltd.), and therefore we are committed to applying the new EU regulation on Data Protection (GDPR – General Data Protection Regulation).

Fabrikacios Laboratorium Ltd. solely handles personal data that is necessary for the provision of DDMP Open Call, and only with the consent of the customer concerned.

The Privacy Policy covers the following areas and events:

- applying for DDMP Open Call;
- sending, receiving and subscribing to newsletters, invitations to events;
- online and direct marketing activities;

Fabrikacios Laboratorium Ltd. may also involve third parties in the processing of personal data in case the third party's data management and data protection practices comply with the relevant legal requirements. In case we involve third parties in personal data processing, we conclude a data management contract with these organizations and / or entities.

The use and processing of personal data necessary for applying the DDMP Open Call (available on <https://ddmp.fablabbudapest.com>) are done by the website owner and operator Fabrikacios Laboratorium Ltd. (Headquarters: 1067 Budapest, Eötvös utca 25/B 3/29, Hungary; tax ID: HU23528961; company reference number: 01-09-969865). The Website uses cookies to improve user experience, collect anonymous user statistics, perform online advertising and remarketing. Fabrikacios Laboratorium Ltd. is responsible for the operation of the website, as well as for the process of the cookies.

The newsletters and invitations of DMMP, as well as the processing and management of personal data, are handled by the Mailchimp email service provider (headquarters: The Rocket Science Group LLC, 675 Ponce De Leon Ave NE 500, Atlanta GA 30308). Unsubscribe from this newsletter is accessible for every user with only one click by clicking to the unsubscribe button included in the newsletters.

In the case of applications received by the Company, the personal data of the applicants will only be stored until the Call is open and is filled and all data will be used solely for contacting the applicant and for the notification of the candidate. Every data of the applicants not selected will be deleted.

In compliance with the GDPR legislation, Fabrikacios Laboratorium Ltd. ensures that users can have an insight into the information stored about them at any time (contact at hello@fablabbudapest.com) and they can any time ask for the deletion of their data from the system
